

BALMES

390201A 16" Pendant Light

The Balmes pendant light exudes effortless elegance with its organically shaped matte white opal glass shade, gracefully suspended by a sleek black textile cable and three discreet metal cables from a matching metal canopy. Whether showcased as a single statement piece or arranged in multiples for a dramatic effect, this pendant captivates with its soft, ambient glow. Perfect for illuminating a living room or casting a warm, inviting light over a dining table, this pendant blends Japandi influences with timeless style.
